Sunday evening, at A. O. U. W. hall, Rabbi William Rosenau, the distinguished young divine of Omaha, entertained a large audience with his very able lecture "The Evolution of Judaism." The doctor is a fluent and interesting speaker and thor-oughly impresses the audience with his re-marks. He maintained that Judaism is the faith which rational christianity accepts, and that it will eventually become the creed of that humanity which will in the future unite in one grand brotherhood and recognize God as its common Father. The room was well filled and it is to be hoped the next time this gentleman appears in Lincoln that a larger hall will be secured and the fact more generally advertised. It was a brilliant ecture and enjoyed by all the audience.

Dr. Everett B. Finney and Miss Edna Meredith Heaton were quietly married Wed-nesday evening at the home of the brides parents Eleventh and E streets in the presence of about forty relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. T. Davis of this city promptly at eight o'clock.

A New Enterprise Rendy for Business. In these days when art in the west seem to take more tangable interest with its residents it is pleasant to note that mercantile pursuits keep apace with the growth of the work. It is also pleasant to chronicle the fact that in addition to the art stores now doing business here that a new establishment. and one that bids fair soon to take the lead in that particular line, has been opened and is now ready to serve all interests in the line of art supplies for brush work, framing etc.
The firm refered to is the Lincoln Frame &

Art Co., who are now at home and ready to serve you at the Elite Studio, 226 south Eleventh street, where their place presents most attractive appearance and occupies the front, north half, of the beautiful store. The members comprising this firm are Mr. A. Betz, late with Geo. A. Crancer & Co., and Mr. A. C. Townsend, son of the proprietor of the Elite Studio. Mr. Betz's long and practical experience in the art and frame industry gives him a thorough knowledge 😸 the business, and having learned the want of this community is certainly well qualified to successfully cater to their wants. Mr Betz was in Chicago recently and personally selected the beautiful line of goods that the firm now have displayed. In the line of artists' materials he has selected all the latest and most desirable articles which includes full line of brushes from the cheapest bristle to the finest sable. Likewise in the stock of studies has he shown clever tact and judgement, as in the stock is shown some of the most superb effects that have ever reached this city, and in fact in all other departments has the representations been of a thoroughly artistic and practical taste. The Lincoln Frame & Art Co, will introduce a new fea ture in the study department. They will rent studies to responsible parties by the week. If at any time you want anything in the line of framing or art goods give this firm a call. Their goods are all new, are the the very latest styles and prices are O. K.

Few houses in Lincoln have met with the success in past years that L. Meyer & Co have enjoyed. In their seventeen years of business carear in Lincoln they have always conducted business on business principles in a thoroughly honest, upright and liberal spirited maner. They do not have to resort to fake sales for trade, neither do they find it necessary to "close out the entire stock at cost" in order to create business. Their goods are sold on their merits at a small margin, and the man does not live that can say tha he ever made a purchase there that was mis represented. Their line of groceries and dry goods are all up to the full standard of demand, and with such an admirable method in business no house can ever fail to please L. Meyer & Co. is a popular firm and are worthy your favors.

Now that the holidays are near at hand and that the average reader commences to figure on buying some sort of token for friends and relatives, it might not comamiss for us to direct your attention to the fact that no where in Lincoln is the assort ment or the line of suitable gifts that are to be found at Eugene Halletts. And it matters not how much or how little you will want to spend for there you can select suitable articles ranging in price from 50 cents to $500. You know where Hallets place is. Why not step in when down town and pick out what you want even if you don't want it now, he will lay it aside for
